BELGIAN ARMY MAKING LAST STAND FOR FORTS OF ANTWERP

Struggle Around Chief Port of Belgium Attracts Most Attention for the Moment, Because Result of Engagement Must Have Considerable Effect on Bigger Battle Between Allies and Germans—Death Grapple of Immense Armies Yet Continues.

THOUSANDS HAVE HURRIEDLY LEFT BESEIGED CITY

Towns of Holland Over-Crowded and Steamers to England Packed With Refugees—Great Battle Line Extends From Swiss Frontier Nearly to North Sea—On East Prussian Frontier Fighting Appears to be at Standstill—Reports Contradict.

London, Oct. 7.—While the immense armies of the belligerent powers of Europe are engaged in a death grapple along lines hundreds of miles in extent, in battles which, for the numbers engaged, fierceness and stubbornness, have no precedent in history, the little army of Belgium is making a last stand behind the forts of Antwerp, one of the strongest fortified positions in the world.

For the moment, at least, the struggle around the chief port of Belgium attracts the most attention, for the result of the engagement there must have a considerable effect on the bigger battle between the Anglo-French and German forces, which extends from the Swiss frontier across France, almost to the North Sea.

The Germans, while attempting to cross the Scheldt, southwest of Antwerp, made their main attack from the east and broke some days ago, with the aid of their 16-inch guns, through the first line of forts. Between the first and second belt of forts, according to their own accounts, they defeated the Belgian army and captured a number of guns.

Last night shells began to fall in the city itself, and from reports coming through Holland the railway stations, the Palace of Justice and several oil tanks have been damaged.

At the same time six Zeppelin dirigibles flew over the city, dropping bombs, but it has been impossible as yet to ascertain the damage they have done.

King Albert has called on all men of military age to assist in the defense of the city. Thousands of others, women, children and old men, have left Antwerp hurriedly. Among the few non-belligerents remaining are the American consul-general, Henry W. Diederich, and his staff.

The towns of Holland already are crowded with refugees. The mayor of Rotterdam has sent out a warning that there is no more room there for the harassed Belgians, and steamers for England are crowded with refugees. More than 3,000 refugees arrived at Folkestone today, and were taken in charge by committees. Many are penniless.

Five German army corps are taking part in the siege of Antwerp, which is defended by the Belgian army. The outer forts, like those of other fortresses which have fallen since the war began, have not been able to withstand the fire of the big German guns, but the Belgians still are hopeful that, with the inner forts, a flooded area and a mobile field army, they may hold the city until assistance may come by the defeat of the Germans in France.

Such a defeat, all realize, is an enormous task, but the official communication issued in Paris late today, gives the allies hope that the long awaited decision is about to be reached. Not for many days has such an encouraging report from the allies' point of view been published by the French general staff.

DETAILS OF THE SITUATION.
The strong German reinforcements which appeared on the Belgian frontier in the region of Lille, according to this report, "have made no progress at any point," while "at certain points the enemy has moved back, particularly to the north of Arras, where the fighting is developing under conditions favorable to us."

The cavalry are fighting even further north than this and the French communication says operations have developed almost to the North Sea. Around Roye, where the Germans captured important heights from the French last week, the French have regained some of the positions they were obliged to abandon.

MESSAGE TO CAPITALS OF WARRING NATIONS

Tell of America's Day of Prayer for Peace.

Secretary Bryan Prompted by Widespread Favorable Comment by European Press to Send Messages to Officers.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Secretary Bryan has sent to ambassadors in the capitals of all the warring countries of Europe a message telling of President Wilson's day of prayer for peace and the sincerity with which the people of the United States responded to it.

Widespread favorable comment in the European press over the President's action prompted the sending of the message, which will be communicated to the foreign offices in London, Paris, Berlin, Petrograd, Tokio, Vienna and Antwerp. The message follows:

"In obedience to the proclamation of the President, the people of the United States assembled at their places of worship on October 4th and joined in prayer for the restoration of peace in Europe. The attendance was very large, and there was everywhere a spirit of earnestness.

"Care was taken that nothing should be said of a non-neutral nature, the trend of the speeches being that God might so direct those in authority in the belligerent nations as to hasten the restoration of peace and that the American people might be wisely guided in the exercise of such influence as they might be able to exert."

WORK MAY START SOON ON NEW CUSTOMS HOUSE

Godwin, Simmons and Overman Will Urge This Today.

Will Call on Secretary McAdoo at Request of Messrs. McQueen, Corbett and Divine—Mr. McQueen's View of Conditions.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8.—The construction of the new customs house at Wilmington may be started within a very short time. At the request of H. C. McQueen, M. W. Divine and M. J. Corbett, all of Wilmington, Representative Godwin and Senators Overman and Simmons will call at the Treasury Department tomorrow and urge the Secretary of the Treasury to have the supervising architect place Wilmington ahead of other buildings now on the list.

They will advance two reasons, that the present building is unsanitary and dangerous to the employees and the further reason that if work could be started now it would help the country by placing $252,000 of Government money in circulation. Mr. Godwin secured an appropriation several years ago of $500,000 for the building and site. Sixty-eight thousand dollars of this amount was used for additional ground for the new structure and the balance is now available for the building. Mr. McQueen feels sure that the three statesmen will be able to convince Secretary McAdoo that the building is needed badly and that he will order the contract to be let at an early date.

Conditions Improving.
Mr. McQueen stated tonight that the financial condition in North Carolina was not half as bad as some people are trying to make the country believe. He thinks the situation is improving every day and has no idea that North Carolina is going to the "howl" simply because cotton is not selling as high as it did last year.

He thinks the only feasible plan yet suggested for the relief of the cotton people is the one fostered by Festus J. Wade, of St. Louis, to raise a pool of $150,000,000 which is to be used exclusively for cotton in the Southern States. Secretary McAdoo and members of the Finance Committee have approved this plan and they will work out the details at a meeting here tomorrow with Mr. Wade and several other leading bankers and business men.

The fact that the army engineers did not appropriate any of the twenty million dollars of river and harbor money for either the harbor of refuge at Cape Lookout or for the inland Waterway was a surprise to supporters of these projects here. Senator Simmons, however, thinks the reason no money was set aside for these works was because there is already enough money to keep the work going until next year.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 8.—Planks demanding the retirement of the N. Y. N. & H. directors and declaring for equal suffrage are included in the platform adopted today by the Democratic state convention. Patrick H. Quinn was nominated for governor.

FORCE IS USED BY MEXICAN STRIKERS

Situation in Capital City One of "Anarchy."

STREET CARS ARE IDLE

Hundreds of Cabs Stopped, Passengers Put Out and Cabsmen Compelled to Join in Sympathetic Strike—Government Acts.

Mexico City, Oct. 8.—Forceful measures were adopted this afternoon by the 1,200 street car men who on strike today. Hundreds of cabs were stopped, passengers compelled to get out and the cabsmen to join in a sympathetic strike. The government has threatened to take vigorous action and to impose the death penalty upon the strikers if they persist in their violence.

Washington, Oct. 8.—General Bliss, commanding the border forces, telegraphed the War Department tonight that every possible step to protect Americans from danger of fire from the Maytorena-Hill forces in the battle of Naco had been taken. He forwarded a message from Colonel Hatfield, commanding the second cavalry brigade at Douglas, Ariz., saying Maytorena informed him the armistice with Hill was ended and that an attack on Naco would begin in earnest; that Maytorena would do all possible to prevent injury to the American side. The message said American troops had cooperated with civil officials for the protection of inhabitants and that many have left town. Four troops and machine gun troops of the Ninth Cavalry and four troops of the Tenth Cavalry are now at or in the vicinity of Naco.

It became known tonight that for some time administration officers have been receiving private reports from unofficial sources of conditions in Mexico City which describe the situation in Mexico City as one of anarchy. Whether this is owing to the indifference of the authorities or their inability to control the undisciplined element among the troops who came into the city with Carranza is not stated. It is believed Consul Sullivan has been instructed to use all his influence to abate these conditions. The reports are said to have given officials here deep concern and to have been held in confidence.

No Agreement Yet.
El Paso, Tex., Oct. 8.—While no definite reports came today from the South regarding the pending conference at Aguas Calientes, it was apparent from the expressions of local officials of both factions that the Carranza and Villa delegates had not yet agreed on matters to be discussed or the actual status of the meeting.

The Villa faction, it was said, held that the convention should be a meeting of all chiefs to decide upon the matter of who should serve as provisional president until the holding of elections. The Carranza agents, on the contrary, insisted that the five delegates sent north from Mexico City merely formed a permanent peace commission which would treat with Villa regarding his disposition to the Constitutionalist commander in chief; that the Mexico City conference already had decided the matter of the provisional presidency by rejecting Carranza's resignation.

FIAR IN PHILADELPHIA

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—An hour after midnight the sky was clear and there was a light breeze from the northwest. Notwithstanding these favorable conditions, the fair was a failure. The forecaster adhered to his prediction made early in the night, threatening rain for the opening day of the world's series.

WAR TAX BILL IS MADE UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Expected to be Passed by Senate Next Week.

Measure Voted Out of Finance Committee, After Brief Session Yesterday, and Reported by Senator Simmons.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The emergency war tax bill was made the unfinished business of the Senate today to be pressed continuously until passed. Senate leaders tonight expressed the belief that it would be passed by the end of next week.

The bill as perfected by the Democratic caucus yesterday was voted out of the Finance committee after a brief session and reported to the Senate by Senator Simmons.

URGES MOVEMENT FOR LARGER FOOD CROPS

Secretary Houston Does Not Believe an Attempt Merely to Secure Restriction of Cotton Acreage in South Will Prove Effective—Writes in Answer to Request to Secure and Publish Pledges of Farmers.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Secretary Houston today sent to a number of Southern exchanges a letter advocating a constructive movement for diversified crops in the South rather than an attempt merely to restrict cotton acreage.

He had been asked to secure and publish pledges from cotton planters to reduce their acreage next season. Restriction, Secretary Houston said he believed, would not prove effective. Secretary Houston's letter says in part:

"In the face of past experience and knowledge of the human element involved, it does not seem likely that an effort to induce Southern farmers simply to restrict acreage will solve the problem. In the past such an effort has been made. It has been found that where agreements have been made to reduce acreage they have not been observed, and that instead of a reduction of acreage resulting there has been an increase and the production of a larger crop. Many individuals thinking that others would reduce acreage have increased theirs, and the result has been that which I have indicated.

Bankers and Merchants Blamed.
"I recognize that there have been impediments placed in the way of many Southern farmers in their attempt to diversify their agriculture by failure of banks and merchants to extend him credit on other things than cotton. It seems to me that this has been short-sighted and that less labor and capital would go into cotton planting and that the output of this particular crop in another year would be proportionately reduced, or that in any event the South could live at home and utilize what cotton it did produce as a cash asset.

Hearty Co-operation Needed.
"The hearty co-operation of individuals in the South, of land owners and tenants, of all Southern organizations, bankers and merchants, is needed to bring about a better direction of Southern agricultural enterprise. If they should see fit at this time to follow such a constructive programme as a means of cutting down on the family expenses, and that they might increase their production of chickens, guinea, turkeys and hogs to the point at least of supplying their own needs and the needs of their neighbors. With adequate attention to marketing, they can, also profitably produce these things for interstate shipment. I am confident that the number of poultry on the average Ohio farm is approximately 125, while the number on the average South Carolina farm is about 14. The same comparison would doubtless circumscribe with reference to most of the Southern states. This situation should be remedied and can be remedied. The whole nation is confronted with a problem of securing enough meat for its own consumption. Too exclusive effort in the past has been given to the production of large animals, such as beef cattle, and to the production

ANOTHER $100,000,000 COTTON FUND PLANNED

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—Plans for the creation of a fund of at least $100,000,000 to retire surplus cotton in the South were approved here today at a meeting of the executive board of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, with prominent business men and bankers of the various Southern states.

It is proposed to form a syndicate of Southern wholesale dealers and Northern and Southern manufacturers to which each dealer and manufacturer will contribute a certain per cent of the total amount of his annual gross sales in Southern states. This fund is to be used for making loans to Southern farmers on their cotton, the staple to be accepted as security.

The plan was presented to the meeting by J. H. McLaurin, of Jacksonville, Fla., president of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association, and Lloyd M. Hooper, of Selma, Ala., first vice president. It was announced that it

DETAILS OF $150,000,000 COTTON POOL PLAN PUBLIC

St. Louis, Oct. 8.—Details of the proposed $150,000,000 cotton pool, planned by Festus J. Wade, a local banker, and now being considered by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board as a means of relieving the cotton crisis, were made public here. Mr. Wade, with a delegation of St. Louis business men, is on his way to Washington. A statement prepared by Mr. Wade says it is expected New York City will subscribe $50,000,000 to the pool and perhaps more. St.

Louis is expected to contribute $7,500,000. The loan fund is to be formed by subscribers from national and state banks and trust companies, merchants and manufacturers throughout the country. The pool is to be managed by some large firm assisted by an advisory committee of bankers and cotton handlers.

At least 100 financial centers will be asked to contribute to the fund. Wade says the plan is to provide storage facilities and to issue uniform negotiable warehouse receipts for the cotton, which will be used as collateral. The syndicate will

REV. THOS. C. DARST IS ELECTED BISHOP

Richmond Rector to Succeed Bishop Robert Strange.

ON TWENTIETH BALLOT

Dr. W. H. Milton, of Wilmington, Withdrew His Name—Council of Diocese of East Carolina at Washington Adjourns.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Oct. 8.—Rev. T. C. Darst, St. James' Church, Richmond, Va., was this morning elected Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, to succeed the late Bishop Robert Strange. The election of Mr. Darst took place on the twentieth ballot. Balloting for the office of Bishop commenced last night at 8 o'clock. The Council adjourned after notifying him of his election.

The Rev. Dr. Milton, of Wilmington, and Rev. Dr. John Harding, of New York, were the other leading candidates. Upon the opening of the Council this morning at 10 o'clock and before a ballot was taken, Dr. Milton was recognized and asked that his name be withdrawn from the race. This was done with reluctance by the Council. On the last ballot taken last night before the Council adjourned, Dr. Milton received eight clerical votes and nine lay votes. Dr. Harding received 11 clerical votes, and 18 lay votes.

The election of Rev. T. C. Darst occurred on the 20th ballot this morning. The following telegram was sent to him in Richmond today at noon notifying him of his election:

"In God's providence you have been elected our Bishop. We ask your prayerful consideration and its acceptance." The Bishop-elect is a native of Pulaski county, Virginia, is reputed to be about forty-one years of age and one of the most popular and hardworking rectors in the Episcopal Church. Among his first charges was St. Mark's Church, Richmond, and from there he went to Newport News and became rector of St. Paul's Church. During his rectorship in the ship-building city, his success was wonderful along all lines. No man in that city was more universally beloved. From Newport News, he was called to the rectorship of St. James Episcopal Church, Richmond, Va., where his work speaks for itself. It is the consensus of opinion that the Council made a wise and judicious choice and if Mr. Darst accepts the high office to which he has just been called he will fill it with ability and credit and the Diocese of East Carolina will be under safe hands.

The candidates before the Council for the office of Bishop were, Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, of Wilmington, who withdrew; Rev. Dr. John Harding, of New York; Rev. Dr. R. S. Coupland, of New Orleans; Rev. K. G. Finley, of Columbia, S. C.; Rev. F. M. Osborne, of Charlotte, N. C.; Rev. T. C. Darst, of Richmond; Rev. B. F. Huske, of Newbern, N. C.; Rev. A. S. Ashby, of Elizabeth City, N. C.; Rev. R. W. Patton, and Rev. A. R. Berkley. As the Council was called together for the sole purpose of electing a Bishop, it adjourned sine die immediately after a choice had been made.

Bishop Darst will receive a warm and cordial welcome to North Carolina.

MESSAGE A SURPRISE.

Friends in Richmond Doubt That Rev. Mr. Darst Will Accept.

PLENTY OF MONEY IN THE COUNTRY ALREADY

Difficulty Is to Get it to the Cotton Growers

President Believes That Mobilization of Country's Credits Will Suffice to Solve Problem—Pool Plan Approved.

Washington, Oct. 8.—President Wilson believes that mobilization of the country's credits will suffice to solve the problem of the cotton growers, he told callers today. The organization of the Federal Reserve system would help the situation and referring to efforts to secure the issuance of more money to relieve cotton men, said he believed there was plenty of money in the country, but the difficulty was to get it to the growers.

There is no danger of a "cotton corner," in the President's opinion, through efforts of bankers to raise a pool of $150,000,000, to be loaned to planters. Subscriptions to the pool are sure to be so widely distributed, he said, as to eliminate that possibility. The President approves the plan for the pool. He may see Festus J. Wade, the St. Louis banker, who launched the idea, and the other men who are to meet the Federal Reserve Board tomorrow to explain the details.

that town on the right bank of the river.

The conjecture, therefore, that the French had driven them back across the river soon after they made their advance, and captured, besides the town itself, the forts of Romain and Pavees, proves incorrect.

In the Woerthe district, the Germans, without success, have delivered violent attacks against the French, who doubtless were trying to get behind the German force on the Meuse at St. Mihiel.

With the Germans to the north withdrawing and the repulse of their attack west of Apremont, the Germans at St. Mihiel are considered to be in rather a dangerous position.

THE OTHER SIDE OF STORY.

As an offset to this favorable French statement, the German account says the French attacks in the Argonne and to the northeast of Verdun were repulsed, while no decision has been reached in the fighting on the German right wing.

This latter statement remains true today, for, although the French claim to have met with success, there is nothing to indicate any definite result has been attained and there probably will be much more fighting and a further extension of the wings, possibly in the direction of Antwerp, before either side is compelled to give way.

SITUATION IN EASTERN TRANSYLVANIA.

The other big battle line between the combined Austro-German armies and the legions of Russia extends from the Galician frontier, near Tarnow, north to the East Prussian border. Another Russian force is besieging Przemyśl in Galicia, and still another is invading Hungary.

On the East Prussian frontier the fighting appears to have come to a standstill. The Russians, having driven the Germans back after their advance to the Niemen river, found on the German side that the reinforcements had been brought from Königsberg, and their further progress was arrested. The Germans, in fact, claim to have defeated the Russians near Suwalki and to have taken 2,700 prisoners and nine machine guns.

Fighting on a larger scale soon will be resumed and then it will be decided whether the Germans are to re-investigate Russia in the region of the Russians are to overrun Poland.

In southwestern Poland, the Austro-German armies have advanced along both banks of the Vistula river with the object of compelling the Russians to evacuate part of Galicia, and, according to their reports, have defeated them, capturing 4,000 prisoners.

The Russians, however, they allowed the enemy to advance as far as the Opatow-Sandomir front in order to force them to abandon their strongly entrenched position, which they accepted battle in the open country. Since this battle nothing has come through to change the movements of the two armies.

The advance of the Russians into Hungary has aroused intense feeling in Rumania in respect to Transylvania and a section of that country is advocating that Rumania join the allies, so that should victory rest with the allies, Rumania may feel left to that part of the Austro-Hungarian empire.

The lesser events of the day included the dropping of a bomb by a German aeroplane in the neighborhood of Paris.

Great Britain and Austria have arranged for the exchange of prisoners detained in the two countries who are not of military age. This is important to England, as many prominent persons were at the outbreak of the war placed taking the care when the war broke out.

name as agencies banks at various points in the South.

Each institution making a loan will receive the notes of the borrowers together with the warehouse receipt and insurance on the cotton in favor of the loaning bank. The reliability of the warehouse is to be guarded by banks through clearing house associations. The loaning bank would obtain its money for forwarding the notes and warehouse receipts to the nearest agency of the institution. The agency would discount the notes and reimburse itself by drawing upon the syndicate managers.

All loans shall be made payable one year after date or earlier at the borrower's option, with the right on the part of the agency bank to extend the loan six months and for a second term of six months with the approval of the syndicate managers.

Explaining that it is not intended that the fund should be put in competition against financial institutions which usually loan upon cotton, the statement proposes an interest rate of 7 percent per annum instead of the customary 6 per cent. In addition there will be a charge of one-tenth of one per cent per month to meet such expenses as compensation for the syndicate managers, advertising and other essentials to the organization. It further is explained that this extra charge is proposed so as to discourage the holding of cotton beyond a period when it could be sold at a reasonable price.

FOR GOVERNMENT LOAN.

Compromise Bill for Relief of Cotton Growers is Adopted.

Washington, Oct. 8.—A conference of the Congressional representatives from all cotton growing States adopted by overwhelming vote a compromise bill for the relief of the cotton growers. The measure calls for a loan of $250,000,000 by the government through national and State banks, the Secretary of the Treasury to formulate rules for its distribution and rates per bale at which loans would be made, and fix the maximum interest at four per cent. It contemplates raising the fund by an issue of Federal notes, or by the sale of Panama Canal bonds and would become effective immediately and expire by limitation Dec. 31, 1915.

The measure is a compromise plan for the Henry bill, action on which was indefinitely postponed today by the House banking and currency committee. That measure would have created a loan fund of $500,000,000.

—J. E. Johnson and H. F. Crandle, both white, were arrested at Seventh and Castle street early last night by Plainclothesmen D. W. Coleman on a charge of engaging in an affray. They were taken to the police station and recognized for their appearance before the Recorder this morning. Later in the night they were again arrested by Policeman J. F. Jordan on a charge of being intoxicated and lodged in the city prison.

WAKE FOREST VS. CAROLINA.

Fifty-Three to Nothing Score in Football Game Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chapel Hill, N. C., Oct. 8.—Carolina exactly duplicated the performance of A. & M. of last Saturday when she defeated Wake Forest 53 to 0 at Durham today. A. & M. played Wake Forest in Raleigh last Saturday and defeated the Baptists by eight touchdowns and five goals. Carolina did exactly the same today. The only difference in the two games was the fact that the Farmers used 15 and 10 minute quarters, while the University laid out straight 10 sections.

Substitutions were begun for the State boys after the first few minutes and by the beginning of the second quarter the entire second team was in the field. Before the game was over every member of the squad played.

Three touchdowns were made in the first, one in the second, two each in the last two quarters. Wake Forest made three first downs. Two came in succession, the first time that any team this year has made two successive downs against Carolina. Carolina did not kick a single time. The first touchdown came on two running plays from mid-field. Forward passing was tried frequently with indifferent success.

Quarters, 10 minutes. Referee Broughton, Wake Forest; umpire, Cutrell, Carolina; head linesman, Winston, Carolina. Touchdowns, Valley 2, Fuller 2, Park, Reid, Fore, Hines. Field goals, Tandy 3, J. Jones 2.

CO-OPERATION A NECESSITY.

Success of Individual Farmer Passed, Says Cornell Professor.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—That the success of the individual farmer in America has passed and that co-operation is now a necessity were declarations made by Prof. Paul Work, of Cornell University, in an address today before the convention of the Vegetable Growers' Association of America.

Prof. T. C. Johnson, of Norfolk, Va., told of the progress made by the Virginia vegetable growers by co-operation. Other delegates declared co-operation between the farmer and the consumer would materially reduce the cost of living.

POLITICAL ORATORY HAS RIGHT-OF-WAY IN SENATE.

Democrats and Republicans Make Speeches for the Record.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Political oratory was given the right of way in the Senate today, Republicans and Democrats taking the opportunity to get campaign material into the Record pending opening tomorrow of debate on the war revenue bill.

Senator Townsend, for the Republicans, criticized the activities of the administration and said that through mismanagement and extravagance the Democrats had been forced into levying the proposed war tax. He declared President Wilson had "boasted" Congress more than any previous President.

MISS ANNIE R. HILL DEAD.

Passed Away at Home of Mother in This City Last Night.

Many friends will be grieved to learn of the death of Miss Annie R. Hill, which occurred last night at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Hill, No. 518 Queen street. She was 47 years old. She had been ill for some time. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Surviving her besides her mother are one sister, Miss Mattie J. Hill, and five brothers, Messrs. J. T., J. R., O. M., O. C. and G. W. Hill, all of this city. They will have the tender sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

—Capt. and Mrs. C. S. Ridley, of King's Bluff, were registered at the Orton last night.

WILMINGTON MAY GET FOOTBALL GAME YET

Davidson and The Citadel Anxious to Play Here October 24th.

If the two teams are willing to split gate receipts, less a small percentage to go to the owners of the Sunset Park ball ground, Wilmington will have an opportunity Saturday October 24th of witnessing a football game between the eleven of Davidson College and the Citadel of South Carolina.

Mr. Lex Klutz, president of the Davidson College Athletic Association, and manager of the Davidson football team, has been in correspondence with Dr. Morris M. Cladwell, of this city. His last letter asking that Wilmington decide as soon as possible what she is willing to do to see the game. Mr. Klutz stated in his letter that both Charlotte and Savannah, Ga., want the game, but that Davidson has another game at Charlotte only a few weeks later, and that Savannah is so far away so to make that city undesirable.

Both teams, he thinks, would be willing to come for actual traveling expenses and local entertainment. He figures that the total expenses for the two teams would amount to about $450.

In reply Dr. Cladwell, who is a former Davidson football manager, advised Mr. Klutz that the local business men would hardly be willing to bind themselves responsible for a guarantee of the gate receipts, but that the Sunset Park diamond could be secured for small percentage of the gate receipts and the team could take the rest. Dr. Cladwell well advised Mr. Klutz to make the arrangements for the game and come on, as he is confident that the gate receipts will more than pay the expenses of the teams. He expects a reply within a few days.

Both Davidson and the Citadel have unusually strong football teams this year, and the game here would be certain to draw a large crowd, not only from Wilmington, but from all nearby points in eastern North Carolina.

THE THIN AND WEAK

Easy Way for Them to Get Strong and Fat.

To thin and weak J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has a word to say. Let them use Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, that is now so popular, and they will soon be plump and rosy.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh-forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained by the body.

The large sale the J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. have had on Samose since they first introduced it in Wilmington, and the wonderful results following its use have made them such enthusiastic believers in its great merits, that they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose does not make thin people fat and restore strength and health.

When a gain in weight is noticed, after Samose has been used for a week or ten days, and health has improved, and you notice yourself growing stronger, you certainly should feel more than satisfied with what you have received from the small cost of 50c.

To Shippers and Receivers of Freight IN NORTH CAROLINA

On October 13th, 1914, the provisions of the new North Carolina Freight Rate Law (Chapter 20, Public Laws, Extra Session of 1913), familiarly known as the "Justice Act," becomes effective under the proclamation of the Governor of North Carolina. New tariffs of rates for the transportation of freight between points in the State of North Carolina will be filed with the North Carolina Corporation Commission, and with all the Agents of the undersigned Railroad Company on said date.

The provisions of the new Law make some radical changes in the transportation of freight within this State, and in order to prevent confusion on the part of the shippers and receivers of freight it is deemed proper to call these changes to their attention. In addition to the changes made in the rates heretofore existing, the new Law prohibits one railroad from meeting specific competitive rates of another rail or water line, unless intermediate rates are reduced to the same level, and to this extent competition between different routes will hereafter be prevented by the Law of North Carolina.

Special attention is called to the new form of these tariffs. They require that when freight is to be transported over a joint haul by more than one carrier, the shortest route must be used in order to secure the lowest rate. If the shipper does not desire his freight forwarded by the shortest route indicated in the tariff, but desires it forwarded by another route, it will be so forwarded, but the rate charged must be for the actual distance by the route directed by the shipper, even though it be the longer route.

Freight transported between points on this line will, under the terms of the Law, be forwarded by the route over which this line's shortest distance is obtained, and the rate of this line for said shortest distance will be applied unless the shipper instructs that the freight be forwarded by another route, in which case the freight will be so forwarded, and the rate applicable by said other route will be applied. If a shipment is tendered to an agent of this line without routing instructions, destined to a point reached by this line, it will be assumed that it is the desire of the shipper that the freight be transported entirely over this line, even at a higher rate than may be obtainable if forwarded via another route. On shipments so forwarded without specific instructions from the shipper, this Company may not, under the Law, entertain claims for overcharge on basis of the lower rate applicable via another route.

ARMOUR AND COMPANY could not have become the world-famous food producing institution it is if its business were not founded upon integrity. Armour quality and service never disappoint. There's an Armour man here in your home city always (see 'phone number below) to make good every Armour representation.

At Peace With the World

A good breakfast—of Armour's "Star" Ham or Bacon and Eggs—will do more to get you in the right frame of mind for work than anything else. The meat is there—firm, tender and juicy—and the mild sugar curing and smoking are done with such care, that the delicious "tang" permeates every particle. Buy a whole ham or side of bacon at a time. It costs less, and saves many trips to the store, and you have—when you buy Armour's "Star" Brand—the satisfaction of knowing that you have the best in the world for any emergency.

"A Cube to a Cup"

And you have a cup of savory beef bouillon, deliciously flavored with vegetables and perfect seasoning. That's Armour's Bouillon Cubes. All you need is a cup of hot water and a cube for each person. For the first course at dinner—for the working man—for the school child—for the office worker—for the caller—for everybody.

Armour's Glendale Oleomargarine

Is just as delicious as good butter—just as wholesome—just as good to look at and costs one-third less. Why don't you use it? Its use means money saved that you can use to advantage in other ways.

Made under U. S. Government supervision. In hygienic paraffined cartons—at the best dealers.

Cloverbloom Cheese

Is one of the most economical of foods. It is moderate in price, very high in food value, and with no waste. Also it is backed by the Armour name, which guarantees the highest quality and purity.

Baked Crackers and Cheese, No. 2

9 or 10 butter crackers or soda crackers
2 cups of hot milk, whole or skimmed
1 cupful grated cheese ¼ teaspoonful salt
Soak the crackers in the milk; place them in a buttered baking dish in alternate layers with the cheese; pour the remaining milk over them and bake. The dish may be covered with buttered crumbs. A very small amount of mixed mustard on each cracker.

Easy, Inexpensive Desserts

With plenty of good eggs at hand, it is an easy matter to prepare the delicious custards which are appropriate for dessert. You will know that your eggs are good if you always insist on Armour's Select Eggs. The Armour name on the label protects you and insures you the highest quality.

Baked Custard

4 cups scalded milk ¼ cup sugar
4 to 6 Armour's Select Eggs
Few gratings nutmeg ¼ teaspoon salt
Beat eggs slightly; add sugar and salt; pour on slowly scalded milk; strain in buttered mold, set in pan of hot water. Sprinkle with nutmeg and bake in slow oven until firm.

WORLD'S GREATEST BASEBALL MACHINES CLASH TODAY FOR BASEBALL SUPREMACY OF THE WHOLE UNIVERSE

STAGE IS SET; WORLD AWAITS OPENING OF BASEBALL CLASSIC

Quaker City Is Thronged With Fans from All Parts of the Country, Thousands of Whom Are Unable to Obtain Accommodations to Witness the Games—Boston's "Royal Rooters" and Other Fans by Thousands

"Royal Rooters" Are Headed By Mayor of Beantown

BETTING ON ATHLETICS

Much Is Expected to Depend Upon Fox-ness of Mack and Stallings With Their Able Field Captains.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—The stage is set and players and fans alike await the morning and the weatherman's signal to roll back the curtain, revealing the Philadelphia Athletics and the Boston Braves in the world's series drama of 1914. The winners of the American and National League pennants, with a week of relaxation following the clinching of the flags, are ready for the final struggle of the season. Each team professes reasonable confidence in its ability to capture the world's championship. Each in turn concedes that the rival aggregation is a powerful baseball combination and if defeated stands ready to extend congratulations to the winner rather than exult in the loss of the series.

The fan, both local and foreign, is here by thousands, each club having its legion of loyal supporters. The followers of the Athletics, to whom league and world's championship pennants are no longer novelties stand steadfast in their belief that Connie Mack's great baseball machine will prove its triumphant progress while the Boston brigade is equally confident that the Braves, under the leadership of George Stallings will halt the Philadelphia baseball juggernaut. The National League representatives, although they open the series away from home, will have ample vocal support since Boston's famous clan, the "Royal Rooters" will be present at Shibe Park singing their battle song, "Tessie," which has been heard on every world's series field of recent years when a Hub club was battling for honors.

Several hundred Boston fans have enrolled as "Royal Rooters" for the trip will travel in a special train, accompanied by a band. "Tessie" will be almost its only place. "It has always been a winner; we'll sing 'again,' reads an announcement by the committee in charge. The song was first adopted during the world series of 1903 between Pittsburgh and the Boston Americans. Shouted from hundreds of throats in the games at Boston and at Pittsburgh, the strains of "Tessie" set the Pirate players, they afterward declared, and Boston won the series after being three games behind. Again in 1914, the rooters rallied to the support of a home team and gave Boston to victory in the last game of the American League season at New York. Two years ago the "Royal Rooters" traveled from Boston to New York and from New York to Boston, "Tessie" always on their lips, following the Red Sox in their wonderful series with the Giants.

The songsters from New England will have to swell strong on the chorus for every seat in grand stand and bleachers has been sold. A big majority of the 20-odd thousand spectators will be Athletic adherents and while they may have no organized cheer or battle song the Braves will know that the Mackmen, on their home grounds, are backed by a vocal tornado that is extremely disconcerting to baseball players who seek to drag them from their championship throne.

This support is not entirely devoted to cheering and applause for the Athletics' cohorts are willing and eager to wager on the chances that the American League club will defeat the Boston representatives of the senior organizations. The Braves' great exhibition of ability and gameness, however, has made an impression and while odds are quoted on the Athletics the range is comparatively small. The leading odds are five to four on the local club to win the series. Occasionally enthusiastic fans are found who have offered or given five to even two to one, but there is in the work or strength of clubs to warrant odds approximating two to one.

As the teams will probably tomorrow the combinations will be evenly matched in offensive and defensive strength. Where one has an advantage in one department is offset by weakness in another result being that when the average is struck the luck of the day is likely to be a deciding factor.

Frank Chance once remarked: "The world's series is too short for both clubs to get an even break in the luck." In battery material the Athletics appear to have greater strength in their second string pitchers and the confidence that comes to twirlers and catchers who are no longer strangers to the strain of a world's series. Both from a batting and fielding standpoint the averages show that Boston's infield does not quite reach the strength of the Athletics. The outfield combinations are more evenly matched. The Braves are heavier hitters and field and throw equally as well as the present world's champions.

Much will depend upon the manner in which the teams are handled by their managerial faces and in this respect the battle of wits and tactics between Mack and Stallings, aided by their lieutenants on field and bench, may be the pivot upon which victory or defeat will swing.

Both have shown remarkable ability in the developing and handling of their methods are not. When the teams tomorrow Mack will sit dugout saying little, yet running his machine with invisible hand.

Stallings, keyed to an excitement and enthusiasm, will not every move of his with an intensity of the hardest worked player.

Neither Stallings nor Mack has

CLOUDY SKIES FORECAST

Turbulent Incidents Mark Preparations for World's Baseball Contest. Unprecedented Demand for Tickets—Use of Park.

Philadelphia, Oct. 8.—The world's series apparently will be fought without the spirit of brotherly love for which the Quaker City is noted. The struggle for the premier baseball honors was preceded today by a fusillade of threats that read like bulletins from the European war zone.

Manager George Stallings, of the Boston Braves, has threatened to punch Connie Mack, of the world's champion Athletics, on the nose; Director Porter, of the Department of Public Safety, threatens to investigate reports of ticket scandal; the National Commission received an alleged shortage of tickets and aside from all this, the weather can threaten rain for tomorrow, the day on which the American and National pennant winners are scheduled to open the series here at Shibe Park.

Not since the memorable struggle between the Philadelphia Americans and the New York Nationals in 1911 has this city been so stirred by baseball contest. Both players and followers appear to take the coming contests with unusual seriousness. The spirit of battle and the lack of accommodations were noticeable throughout Philadelphia tonight. Every hotel was crowded with baseball players and spectators, but the congestion was negligible compared with that in the offices where seats for the series were being handled.

The demand for admission coupons to Shibe Park surpasses anything of a similar character ever encountered in the past world's series in which the Athletics have been participants. Thousands of fans have been unable to purchase tickets through the ordinary channels.

Local fandom has been augmented by special delegations from Boston, New York, Baltimore and Washington. Both local proprietors and baseball magnates are at their wits' end trying to accommodate the vast throngs of fans. Baseball and its ramifications is the sole topic discussed here. Statements and denials issued from the camps of the rival clubs help to keep interest keyed up to an unusual pitch. This is especially true of the controversy between the two club managers regard-

BULLETINS ON WORLD SERIES

As in former years, the Star will be on the job with the latest from the scene of the stupendous battles for world baseball supremacy to be played in Philadelphia and Boston for a week beginning this afternoon.

The Star will have a direct leased wire from Shibe and Fenway parks in Philadelphia and Boston respectively, right into our telegraph room on the second floor of the Star Building, and a play by play bulletin service will be flashed direct throughout the games.

A competent megaphone artist will announce the results and they will also be posted in front of the building, together with tabulated scores as soon as the game is finished.

The wire opens simultaneously with the starting of the games, at 2 o'clock each afternoon, and our friends the fans are all invited to avail themselves of this opportunity to get the returns right red hot, as we assure them it will be a pleasure for us to serve them.

ing the use of Shibe Park for practice

Stallings accused Mack of unsportsmanlike conduct and during a telephone conversation late today threatened to punch him on the nose at the first opportunity. The trouble arose over Stallings' request for the use of Shibe Park for practice. He made the request to Mack in person and the Athletics manager assured him he was welcome to use the park at any hour except between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon, when the local club was expected to practice.

According to Mack the Boston manager was satisfied, but when Mack asked Stallings today if he had accused the Philadelphia club of refusing to permit the National League champions to use the park the argument soon became both bitter and personal and the hard feeling spread rapidly among the players, managers and partisans of the two leagues.

In discussing the affair Mack said: "I cannot understand how the trouble arose. Stallings asked me for the use of the park today during a conversation on Wednesday. I told him that Boston could have it at any hour except between 2 and 3 o'clock when I had ordered the Athletics to report for a final workout. He made no protest and early today I learned he had charged me with unsportsmanlike tactics. I called him up on the telephone and explained that I could not reach all my players in order to notify them to report at some other hour and asked Stallings if he would not be satisfied if we should not have said."

"Yes, he threatened to punch me when we met, but I am sure he did not mean it. I don't see why he was so anxious to practice at Shibe Park at exactly 2 o'clock. McGraw, of the Giants, never made such a request and we never practiced at either the New York or Chicago parks prior to the world's series of 1911 and 1910. Still I was perfectly willing that the Boston players should use our park if they wanted to and I cannot see why Stallings could have been angry when I could not re-arrange my plans at the 11th hour for his liking."

Because of the trouble the Boston players did not go to Shibe Park at all and confined their practice to the National League grounds, five blocks away. The Braves spent more than an hour in batting and fielding while the Athletics were having a similar workout. Both managers reported their players were on edge, but would not give cutting orders or the names of pitchers who will work in the initial contest. The general opinion is that Rudolph and Bender will be selected for the opening contest.

With the exception of Deal at third base in place of "Red" Smith, who broke his leg in Brooklyn Tuesday, Boston probably will take the field in the order in which it played during the closing weeks of the National League season.

Some doubt was expressed early in the week regarding the ability of McInnis to play first for the Athletics owing to a bruised hand, but today he reported in perfect condition for practice.

Stallings and his Braves tonight reported that they will work in the initial contest. The standard of play which carried them from last to first place in the National League was fast and steady enough to win the world's championship. Stallings appeared to be bubbling over with enthusiasm and predicted his club would surprise the Athletics and their supporters. Connie Mack maintained his usual reserve but said he expected a close series in which he hoped to see the Athletics repeat their victory of a year ago.

In general wagering the local club is a top-heavy favorite. Few big bets have been recorded, but in small wagers the Athletics have been quoted at 2 to 1 and 7 to 10. The general opinion is there will be only five or six games. Philadelphia bettors offer ten to one that the Braves will not win four straight; 5 to 4 that the Athletics will win the opening contest; 5 to 3 that Boston will not win more than two games, and even money that the Athletics will score more shut-outs.

Local sporting men claim there is less betting on the general result than in any series in recent years. Activity in other respects, however, is far above normal. Although the forecast was for unsettled weather with occasional rain on Friday, ticket speculators, bleacher fans and police were unusually busy tonight. Vendors appeared to have plenty of tickets for sale at prices far in excess of their face value. They asked and received $15 for sets of 12 seats; $25 for the 12 reservations, and $40 for the 12 coupons.

While the National Commission members and out-of-town magnates were complaining they were unable to secure sufficient seats for themselves and friends, speculators were offering coupons for almost every section of the stadium.

Just how they obtained possession of them only the fraternity knew. Local fans charge that the police connived with the speculators in securing choice places in the line at the public sale Wednesday and Director Porter, of the Department of Public Safety, has ordered an investigation as a result of complaints that the police sold places in the line to speculators and in other ways facilitated the purchase of blocks of seats by these persons. It is said that nearly 8,000 seats were sold in less than five hours and that the speculators obtained more than 50 per cent of the public sale coupons.

The National Commission also desires to know why its requests for 1,500 seats was cut to 500 and the Boston club management claims it was unable to purchase seats for either the families of the players or officers.

Three Athletics promised their boarding house keeper tickets for the series some time ago. When they failed to make good the promise the landlady ordered them out of her house, bag and baggage. Tonight they are sleeping at the home of a friend, three in a room.

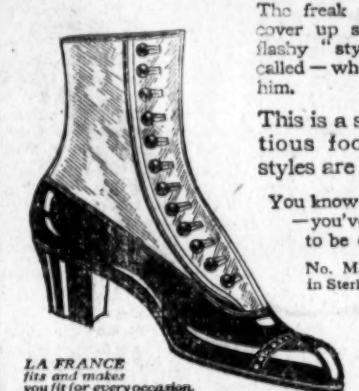

The widespread interest in the series is demonstrated by the remarkable demand for seats in the press stand. Close to 300 have been allotted to newspaper writers from all parts of the United States, Cuba and even the Hawaiian Islands. Even this department's request for reservations were refused. It is said by those in charge that, had every application been filled, nearly 500 seats would have been necessary for reporters and telegraphers.

The baseball correspondents were unanimous in the opinion that the present series was preceded by more wars and rumors of wars than any world's title contest since the National Commission took charge of the annual inter-league conflict in 1905. Late in the evening the correspondents were sent scurrying by a report that Connie Mack and John Shibe, business manager of the local club, had come to blows over the distribution of tickets. The story was emphatically denied by the club management.

At Shibe Park before midnight a line of more than 1,000 men and boys at the gates trailed away for several blocks and was expected to be increased rapidly as soon as daylight broke by determined fans who realized that a long vigil was necessary to secure a place among the lucky 4,000 bleacherites.

Owners of houses overlooking the park were busy erecting grandstands on the roofs, but the police have announced that spectators will not be permitted to view the games from these hastily erected structures.

have to guess who's doing the prevaricating.

History repeats itself but if history
is false it ought to be ashamed to repeat itself.

The armies may plant their big guns
but they expect death to be the reaper
on the field of battle.

The natural advantages of some communities are so potential that they prosper in spite of their wiser.

A man is supposed to get wiser as he grows older but many are foolish enough to accept advice from their boys.

If anybody should come along with a fad they had better keep a halter on it to keep it from being taken away from them.

Being wrong and trying to be President, too, isn't right on the part of some who want to be President so bad
they can taste it.

The fact is, everybody has either descended or ascended from a long line of ancestors. This is an axiom,
and nobody can apply the ax
to it.

If Mr. Carnegie really wants to die poor, he should buy up all the South's cotton land and raise nothing but cotton with the expectation of buying everything else.

Pardon is asked for an Oklahoma Indian because he plays the fiddle. We should say it depends altogether on whether he expects to play the fiddle
with his fiddle.

Just as a man often thinks he is right when he is wrong, it is so with peoples and nations. Sometimes a man thinks he "sees snakes" when there isn't a single snake to be seen.

Most men who have their choice of going to war or staying home are in a position to realize that "there's no place like home." A man's home may not be ideal but the humblest habitation is better than a tented battlefield.

The South must take steps to take care of and preserve its products after they have been made. So far as agricultural production is concerned
it can be easily demonstrated that the South is wasting from 5 to 50 per cent of its energy and industry.

Bourbon county, Ky., having voted dry, an old friend writes us: "Now wouldn't that jar you?" Well, we'd as soon expect to see the day that canons may be dismantled and used as gate posts. In the local option elections recently held in Kentucky, nine out of twelve counties voted dry. Looks as if the trade in corkcups in Kentucky surely will be demoralized by the war on John Barleycorn.

Montana and Colorado report a terrific snow storm and temperatures registering down in the thirties. They are great cattle and sheep producing countries and have housed their stock
this early in the Fall. Near Wilmington, Captain E. D. Williams' corp of alfalfa is standing in the field awaiting its fifth cutting, and throughout eastern North Carolina pastures are green and will continue so till nearly the middle of November. Winter cover crops here furnish pasturage in November, December, February and March, and yet the West furnishes us
with beef, mutton, pork and butter.
All that is wrong with eastern North Carolina is us.

WAR BOOM FOR OUR FACTORIES.

In Northern manufacturing and commercial circles it is said the European war is creating a boom in American factories of various kinds. Orders are pouring in from agents of the belligerent nations requiring supplies of all kinds for the use of the armies in the field. In New York on Tuesday it was stated on authentic information that orders on many lines may reach new high records for quantities involved,
owing especially to orders from Great Britain and France.

Those two belligerents have given orders to every large harness and saddlery factory in the North, the West and the South within the past few months. That Europe is depending on American manufacturers for supplies and goods is evident in a New York announcement saying that orders are reported from practically every manufacturing quarter of the United States.
Thus the story runs.

According to advices received from Dallas, Texas, half a million dollars' worth of saddle and harness supplies
will be manufactured by three concerns
there for a foreign government implicated in the present war. The contract placed with the Dallas concerns is said to call for the manufacture of 30,000 sets of artillery harness and the same number of saddles.

New orders for approximately 1,000-000 blankets and 500,000 sweaters required for the British army are also reported in advices from Philadelphia.
These orders, it is asserted, will give work to thousands of unemployed in many of the most important textile centers of the country for several weeks to come. It is understood that at least two of the leading banking houses in New York are sponsors for the financial obligations of the foreign governments who are buying such heavy quantities of our American products for army purposes, while most of the shipments are to be sent from the factories in this country to Canada,
from which ports they will be trans-
shipped to European ports.

Large sized orders for horse shoes,
horses, mules, wagons, carriages and other means for land transportation are also being reported from many sources from day to day. Manufacturers in Baltimore, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and other cities in the interior are making special efforts to secure the orders which are still to be placed by the foreign agents. From all accounts, it is estimated that between 40 and 50 purchasing agents of the Allies now at war with Germany are in the United States arranging to place contracts for supplies of almost all kinds. Many of these agents have established their headquarters in New York and by telegraph, mail and personal solicitation are getting into touch with manufacturers in various parts of the country.

Hospital supplies, including shirts
and robes, are another of the important items which our American mills are now obtaining big orders from foreign agents for uniforms, shoes, cotton duck, cotton sheets, fleece-lined underwear and over a million yards of tent cloths are some of the other items in demand from our mills.

Authentic information was secured
Wednesday which shows that the purchasing agent for the Greek government, who is at present stopping at
the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York,
had placed an order for $150,000 worth of shoes with Endicott, Johnson & Co.
Delivery of the shoes will be made according to the contract, in ten lots of $15,000 each, the first lot having arrived at New York early this week for shipment to Greece. Contracts for coal, motor trucks, mules, horses and miscellaneous merchandise, as well as large quantities of our American food products, are expected to be placed
from the same sources within the coming fortnight.

We have no doubt that it will not be very long till the cotton mills of the South will be called upon for large supplies of manufactured cottons.

CLOTHING FIBERS SCARCE.

The European war seems to have created a large demand for everything
but cotton, though we rather suspect that cotton's turn is coming next.
The supply of wool just at present is greatly disturbing all the deligent countries except Germany. News comes from London that Germany has seized large wool supplies in France and Belgium and to some extent in Russia. The German invasion in all three countries occurred at a time when her troops could deplete them of their crops, wool supplies, meat animals and raw materials generally.

An article in the New York Journal of Commerce states that Germany's seizure of wool in the raw and partly manufactured state has been large.
This material has been shipped to Germany where it is being worked in to all kinds of fabrics and garments
for military purposes. That, it is explained, is the answer to the question
asked frequently of late among American wool men as to where the German Empire is procuring wool with which to make uniform cloths, overcoats, underwear, hosiery, blankets,
etc.

England has prohibited the export of wool, and Russia and Turkey have placed an embargo on wool exports of any kind. Handlers of wool and piece goods in the United States have been wondering where Germany was getting her wool, without that country's seemingly feeling the wool shortage prevailing everywhere else.

The Journal of Commerce states
that advices received in this country
are that so large have been the seizures of wool tops, yarns and cloth that an association has been formed in Germany for the purpose of distributing these seized materials and supplies to the mills throughout the empire. The mills have been requisitioned for woolen goods for the army and navy and at present they are employing on no other goods than those required for military purposes.

This is an industrial sidelight of the war, and it is stated in American woolen circles that it means higher wool and higher woolen goods. This woolen situation, it appears to us, will sooner or later make all the nations
turn to the United States for cotton and cotton cloth.

WILMINGTON'S COMMERCE WITH CHILE.

The arrival in this port of the British steamship Strathorne reminds us that Wilmington has an annual commerce of several millions of dollars
with Chile, but it is all an import traffic. That means that the port gives Chile considerable business but that we do not send anything back to Chile.
Ships bringing nitrate of soda from Chile either go back empty or go to other American ports for return cargoes.

The Strathorne is a large steamer
and she is the first to come through the Panama Canal to Wilmington. She brought a full cargo of nitrates from Chile, and her heavy load made the canal management take the precaution
of bringing her through the canal in tow by six electrical locomotives. It required ten hours to bring the ship
from the Pacific to the Atlantic side.
She paid $3,500 in tolls and saved 35
days in making her voyage from Chile, compared with the time by way of the old sailing route through the Straits of Magellan. She also saved some $2,500 to $4,000 in expense, even after payment of toll. Time is money, especially on the ocean.

The Strathorne is consigned to Heide & Co., and is discharging her cargo at the Atlantic Coast Line terminals. It is not known yet whether she will take a cargo to any point
from Wilmington, but if she returns directly to Chile for another cargo of nitrates, it is quite apparent that North Carolina manufacturing points could easily load her for the return if they would only work up trade with the west coast of South America.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO AID COTTON GROWERS.

A Washington special in The Star
yesterday stated that President Wilson listened attentively to the North Carolina delegation which called upon him
on Wednesday to secure his co-operation in the efforts to relieve the cotton situation in the South. It was the President's view that the Lever-Smith warehouse bill would open the way for practical solution of the situation, and stated that he would use his influence
to have that bill passed.

The Lever-Smith bill provides for warehouses to be operated under government direction, and it is quite apparent that cotton stored under such auspices will be regarded as a good asset anywhere in America or Europe.
Beyond this legislation, the President informed the North Carolinians that any further action by Congress would be unnecessary.

Threats of some of our cotton men who have gone to Washington to secure relief are idle. It is reported that Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Charlotte, declared the failure of Congress to do something would endanger the Democratic administration in the South.
Even were that true, Congress can go only so far and no farther, and that would be the same were it Republican.
We believe Congress will do all it can,
but it cannot do the impossible.

After reading the newspaper reports
of a recent historical address delivered in North Carolina it is inferred that the lecturer overlooked a bit of history in Great Britain's "white paper"
or "blue paper," or whatever it was.
Anyhow, it was an honest statement of certain historic facts as free from prejudice as present circumstances permit. No man ought to succeed in per-verting history while it is being made.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Mr. A. W. Laxton of Kings Creek reports a fine yield of butter and milk from one small Jersey cow
owned and managed by his wife.
During the year just ended, October 1, Mrs. Laxton sold 204 pounds of butter and 180 gallons of milk from this one cow besides supplying the wants of a family of three persons.—

The poor old bull moose party is getting to such a pass that when Colonel Roosevelt makes one of his vigorous and soul-stirring rear-platform speeches to 15 boys and the station agent, the Philadelphia North American and the Chicago Tribune
hail it as a vast and enthusiastic concourse of our aroused and determined citizenship.—Columbia State.

All ye expert plowhands listen to this tale from Tedding Knass: "A plowing record was made recently on the ranch in Pawnee county, owned by E. E. Friessell. A half-section of wheat land was plowed between 11 o'clock
Monday and 11 o'clock Sunday morning. This is an average of approximately 48 acres a day and has been regarded as extremely good plowing. A 35 horsepower steam engine pulling 31
plows was used." Perhaps the earnest plowman was so busy he forgot when Sunday came.—Greensboro News.

There never was a time in the history of our country when agriculture was as inviting as it is today,
when brains results from the farm.
With the trades and professions in the cities greatly overcrowded, the farm becomes more and more the bright
and beckoning star of hope to millions of young men. Surplus energy of the cities would do well to turn its attention to the farm, and the wise youth of the country will stay right where he is—where opportunity is always before him. Keep your eye
upon the green fields of the country,
for there is no better place.—Selma,
(N. C.) Chronicle.

"There will be enough cane produced in Bradford county this year, if made into sugar, to supply 1,000 families for twelve months," declared the Raiford Tribune. "The crop is fine;

better than for many years past, and while sugar is selling over the grocery counter at 10 cents a pound the present is a splendid time to begin making it." The Tribune admits that there is no refinery near enough to whiten the sugar, but suggests that it be made, knysed and used by the people as it comes from the evap-orators. "It will be the real thing,"
the paper insists, even though it doesn't look quite so attractive. The experiment is worth trying, as the paper suggests.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

Perhaps the best inspiration the farmers of this section will have in the direction of less cotton and more grain, will come from the reports of how the Western farmers are faring.
There is no "buy-a-bale" appeal out there. On the contrary, the farmers are actually hilarious over the way
money is coming to them from the sale of wheat. During the past two weeks in the West, the primary sellers,
which means the farmers, have pocketed $26,000,000 from the sale of wheat and they have more to sell, too. They seem to be well fixed also on oats and what is known as corn credits. These reports coming from the West ought to be the strongest argument the advocates for a reduction in the cotton acreage could use.
They certainly have "pulling" powers.

HENRY BILL IS TABLED BY HOUSE COMMITTEE.

At Request of Presidents of National and Arkansas Farmers' Unions.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The Henry bill
to provide for a large issue of emergency currency to help the cotton farmers was tabled by the House Banking and Currency committee today.
Chairman Glass informed the committee that Charles S. Barrett, president of the National Farmers' Union,
and President Mobley, of the Arkansas Farmers' Union, had asked that the Henry bill be withdrawn.

A Hint for Coming Maternity

In a little book designed for expectant mothers more complete instruction is given in the use of "Mother's Friend."
This is an external embrocation applied to the abdominal muscles for the purpose
of reducing the strain on ligaments, cords
and tendons.
In thus bringing relief and avoiding pain great good is accomplished. It serves to ease the mind, indirectly has a most beneficial effect upon the nervous system and thousands of women have delightfully told how they were free of nausea, had no morning sickness and went through the ordeal with most remarkable success. "Mother's Friend" has been growing in popular favor for more than forty years. In almost every community are grandmothers who used it themselves, their daughters have used it and they certainly must know what a blessing it is when they recommend it so warmly. Strictly an external application it has no other effect than to ease the muscles, cords, tendons and ligaments involved hence is perfectly safe to use by all women. It is used very successfully to prevent caking of breasts.
"Mother's Friend" is prepared in the laboratory of Bradford Regulator Co.,

COUNCIL CONFIRMS RESULTS

Returns of Election Received From Board Yesterday at Noon and Formal Resolution Adopted.

In a formal resolution adopted at a special session yesterday at noon City Council confirmed the results of the franchise election held Wednesday, when by a majority of 472 votes the citizens ratified a street railway franchise granted by Council to the Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company. The resolution was adopted by Council after the vote had been officially canvassed by the City Board of Elections and officially certified to Council.

Mr. W. N. Harris, secretary of the City Board of Elections, read the returns as shown by the canvass of the Board, and upon motion of Councilman Jones, seconded by Councilman Merritt, the following resolution was adopted:

"It is resolved by the City Council of the City of Wilmington, N. C., that the report of the City Board of Elections of the City of Wilmington be received and ordered recorded upon the minutes of this board and that the result of said election as declared by said board be confirmed and that this Council receive the registration and poll books used in said election and the ballots and stubs used in said election by the city clerk and treasurer sealed up and preserved by him as records in his office, and said clerk and treasurer shall also preserve the polls and registration books of said election, and said election be declared to be in favor of the franchise, and in accordance with the result of said election the franchise voted upon is hereby declared granted to said Wilmington & Carolina Beach Railway Company."

The result of the election was then publicly announced from the city hall steps, as provided by charter. While Council was waiting on a report from the Board of Elections an informal discussion of the failure of the person or persons transcribing the names from the registration books used in the municipal election of 1913 to copy all the names. Thos. W. Davis, Esq., counsel for the Tidewater Power Company, who was present, brought the matter up, stating that he merely wished to bring the matter to the attention of Council so that steps could be taken to prevent a repetition of it at subsequent elections.

He mentioned two specific instances, stating that two persons came to him and stated that they could not vote because their names were not on the registration books, although both said they had registered and voted in the municipal election. He said that he then looked on the 1913 books and found their names. He did not see them in the 1913 books, but presumed that they must have registered on these books if they voted in the election.

Councilman Loughlin also mentioned having heard similar complaints, and several others in the room had also heard complaint.

THURSDAY NIGHT LEAGUE
BEGIN BASKETBALL SEASON

Bugs Win From the Skeeters and Rebels Take Game From Orioles.

The Thursday Night Basketball League at the Boys' Brigade successfully launched their 1914-1915 season with two splendid games which were a revelation to those who had seen the class of ball which would be played in this league this season would be the same as that played last season, for it was far superior in every respect, goal shooting, team play, dribbling, passing and every point of the game.

The first game was between the Skeeters and the Rebels. The Skeeters, who had many spectacular plays and series of plays which were good to look at. The Bugs, jokingly dubbed as the hookworms by their opponents, through the fast work and accurate goal shooting of C. Bell assisted by his associates, were the winners by the score of 27 to 23. Rourke and Beach starred for the Skeeters, the former securing five and the latter four field goals.

The second game was between the Orioles and the Rebels and was won by the Rebels by the score of 29 to 26. In this game Simmons had one ball six times, Smith three and Andrews, a new man, three times, while for the Orioles Griffith, C. secured four, and Jewell four field goals. H. B. Register acted as referee and M. Register scored.

Tonight the second series of games in the Friday Night League will be played when the Naps meet the Giants and the Cardinals meet the Braves. The games will begin at 8:30 and the public is invited to see the sport.

SERVICES GROW IN INTEREST

Strong Sermon by Rev. B. E. Stanfield at Bladen Street.

Interest in the series of evangelistic services at Bladen Street Methodist church which are being conducted by the pastor, Rev. T. G. Vickars, assisted by Rev. B. E. Stanfield, of Fremont, continues to grow and large congregations are attending. Mr. Stanfield preached a most helpful sermon last night from Genesis 49: 4. He showed the effects of sin upon the individual life and made an urgent appeal that all present would follow in the path of righteousness.

Many have manifested a desire to become more effective Christian workers and the meetings have already accomplished much good. There have been numerous requests for prayer, the interest shown by young men being especially marked. Services are held each night at 8 o'clock. Previous to the regular preaching service a song and prayer service is held at 7:45 which is being largely attended. A service is also held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and this is also being largely attended. The public is cordially invited to all services.

Spanish Dealer Wants to Get in Touch With Wilmington Concerns.

Secretary Howard B. Branch, of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, has received a letter from Henry Istell of Barcelona, Spain, requesting that he be put in touch with lumber dealers in this section. Secretary Branch will furnish him with the information he wishes.

Mr. Istell writes that he would like to get in touch with firms manufacturing railroad cross ties and concerns handling pine, oak, beech and ash timber, who are desirous of extending their business in Spain. He gives his address as Barcelona, Spain, Calle Deputacion, 23F.

LIST OF SOROSIS PRIZES

Floral Fair and Industrial and Fine Arts Exhibit Will Be An Elaborate Affair.

A most attractive list of prizes for exhibits in the annual floral fair and Industrial and Fine Arts Show of North Carolina Sorosis has been prepared by the committees in charge of this work. The fair will be on a more elaborate scale than has heretofore been attempted and these prizes should insure a most creditable exhibition.

The fair will be given in November and the ladies are now working hard preparing for the event. While they are not prepared to make full announcement of their plans, the prizes will be given as originally outlined and since those who expect to compete have been at work for several months there is every assurance of a fair that will not only be a credit to the county, but to this entire section.

An active part of the fair will be the floral exhibits, particularly of chrysanthemums, for which prizes will be given as follows: Best display, $5; best single bloom, $2.50; greater variety, $5; best collection of yellow blooms, $2.50; best collection of pink blooms, $2.50; best collection of white blooms, $2.50; best display of potted plants, $2.50.

All florists are invited and urged to make exhibits, the only requirements being that for all orders taken by them at the fair, Sorosis shall be given 10 per cent of the proceeds from the sales.

While there have already been a large number who have stated that they expect to have exhibits of flowers, the ladies in charge of this feature are anxious to have others join in making this one of the most popular parts of the fair. Many have been cultivating flowers and the ladies want everybody who can possibly do so to have an exhibit at the fair.

Prizes will be given for fancy work as follows: Best piece of white embroidery; best piece of colored embroidery; best piece of crocheted; best piece of knitting; best piece of fancy work by a girl under 16 years of age; best picture, whether in pastel or water color; best piece of hand painted china; the best home-made rug; the best home-made basket; the best picture drawn by a child.

"ORE TO FINISHED PRODUCT"

Interesting Exhibit Wednesday Evening at Victoria Theatre.

A very interesting series of pictures showing the methods of mining iron ore, the reduction of this ore to molten iron, the refining of the iron into soft steel, and finally the manufacture of this steel into finished pipe and boiler tubes, was exhibited Wednesday evening at the Victoria Theatre, about 600 people being present.

The pictures, prepared by the National Tube Co., of Pittsburgh, were shown in the theatre, the first describing the method of prospecting for iron ore, the open pit method of mining, the blast furnaces and open hearth processes. The second reel were shown the Bessemer process, the pouring of steel into ingots, process of rolling and the butt weld and lap weld methods of making pipe and boiler tubes. The third reel described the various tests and inspections of the finished product.

STATE COUNCILOR HERE.

Head of State Junior Order Organization Visits Local Council.

Mr. Jaul Jones, of Tarboro, State Councilor of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, arrived in Wilmington on the 6:10 train yesterday afternoon and last night made an address at the regular meeting of the Wilmington Council. Members of the other two councils in the city were also present at the meeting. Mr. Jones' visit to the city was on business connected with his position as head of the Junior Order in this State. On account of the short notice of his coming no arrangements for entertainment were made, but it is expected that he will return to Wilmington at a later date, at which time it is hoped that an opportunity will be afforded for all the members of the order to hear him.

Mr. Jones will return to his home at Tarboro this morning.

RELIEVED OF BOND.

Case Against Mr. Greenamyer Dismissed by Justice Harris.

Justice Geo. Harris yesterday at noon dismissed a case against Mr. C. E. Greenamyer, on charge of being a fugitive from justice, and relieved Mr. Greenamyer of the $10,000 bond which he has been under since his arrest. Mr. Greenamyer, it will be remembered, was arrested here upon advice from Pittsburg, Pa., and the charges against him there were dismissed at the request of the Attorney General and the prosecutor.

It is said that further developments may be expected as a result of Mr. Greenamyer's visit to Harrisburg, where he went to investigate the matter of the charges being pressed against him there.

Real Estate Transfer.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: Geo. Schnibben and wife to Chas. Parthay and wife, for $100 and other considerations, tract of about five acres at Rock Hill plantation; Jno. B. Hanby and wife to Ann H. High, for $100 and other considerations, lot on south line of Brunswick, 41.4 feet east of Fifth, 62x90 feet in size; Winter Park Gardens Company to Robert Lee Fisher and wife, for $10 and other considerations, lot No. 114, Winter Park Gardens.

MAY HAVE VOTED ILLEGALLY

If So, Mr. Loughlin Says, Vice President of Tidewater Power Company Will Be Arrested.

That he personally would swear out a warrant for Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur, vice president of the Tidewater Power Company, on a charge of voting illegally in the franchise election Wednesday, if certain reports which had reached him proved to be true, was the statement of Mayor Pro-Tem. Chas. C. Loughlin, presiding at a special session of City Council yesterday at noon.

In bringing up the matter Councilman Loughlin remarked that he believed to a great extent the election of Wednesday had been conducted along clean and fair lines, and that he believed further that the action of the Tidewater Power Company, in offering through the advertising columns of the local press, substantial rewards for any convictions of violations of the election laws was largely responsible for this. But, he added, if certain reports had come to him were true there was a glaring example of illegal voting, and Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur, he said, was responsible for this.

Mr. Loughlin said that he had been informed that Mr. Gouverneur voted Wednesday in the Third Ward, where he formerly lived, though he has been making his home in the Fourth Ward for a period of more than four months. This was a violation of the election laws, he said, punishable by a fine of not exceeding $50, or imprisonment for not more than 10 days.

It was his desire, Mr. Loughlin said, to do all that he could toward furthering the move for clean and fair elections in Wilmington, and with this end in view, if the reports as to Mr. Gouverneur's voting in violation of the election laws turned out to be correct, he would take it upon himself to see that the proper legal action is taken. According to the city directory, Mr. Loughlin said, Mr. Gouverneur resided in the Third Ward, while the city directory showed that he resided in the Fourth Ward. The directory was published in 1913, while the telephone directory was issued June 1st, last.

Mr. Loughlin said that as the matter had been reported to him, Mr. Gouverneur was not permitted to vote in the Fourth Ward because the registration books did not contain his name, and that he then went to the Third Ward and cast his vote. Mr. Loughlin looked over the book from the Third Ward, and he remarked that the record showed Mr. Gouverneur to have voted in that ward as No. 829. He asked Mr. Hanks, the registrar for the ward, if Mr. Gouverneur had voted in the Third Ward, and Mr. Hanks replied that he had. Mr. F. W. Peiffer, an election officer of the Fourth Ward, was asked if Mr. Gouverneur attempted to vote in the Fourth Ward. He replied that he did not remember whether he did or not. Mr. J. J. Hopkins, another election officer for the Fourth Ward, in answer to a question, answered that Mr. Gouverneur was not registered in the Fourth, and was informed that he was not.

Statement by Mr. Gouverneur. Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur last night gave out the following statement relative to the question brought up by Mr. Loughlin:

"I see by the report of Council proceedings today that Mayor Pro-Tem Loughlin has declared that if he finds, after thorough investigation, that I voted in the Third Ward, having lived out of that ward more than four months, he would personally swear out a warrant for my arrest for voting illegally. Mr. Loughlin need not make further investigation. I went to the Fourth Ward polling place, and not finding my name on the register, went to the Third Ward and asked Mr. Schuler if I lived in that ward. He said he thought I did, and that Orange street was the boundary. I found my name on the register and voted in perfect good faith. I had moved only to the next block, and am not familiar with the boundaries of any of the wards. I have lived at Fourth and Orange streets for eleven months. I expect to be out of town until late afternoon, and if upon my return, I am required to do so, I will willingly appear before the proper authorities."

CHURCH CALLS PASTOR.

Rev. O. T. Mattox, of Lenoir, Invited to Return to Wilmington.

Rev. O. T. Mattox, of Lenoir, formerly pastor of the Fourth Street Christian Advent church, has been extended a unanimous call to return to this church as pastor, this action having been taken at a congregational meeting Wednesday night. While no word has been received from Mr. Mattox it is hoped that he can be prevailed upon to return to the city.

Two years ago Mr. Mattox left this church to go to Jacksonville, Fla., to assume the pastorate of a church in that city. Later he became pastor of a church in Lenoir, where he has since been. Both he and his wife have many friends in this city and they will be given a cordial welcome should they return to Wilmington.

Growing

In our business shows that still more people are opening accounts with us. We are daily adding new names to our already long list of depositors. There is a good reason for this. It is this: They have found the road to wealth is by the way of the bank account; and that we, by our uniformly conservative methods, our courteous treatment of our customers, our steady increase in strength, have proven that this is the place to open that account. We want your account.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. W. T. Cooper, of Sunset Park, has returned from a visit to Attalla, Ala.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Rowell, No. 108 North Eighth street, Miss Lina Mildred Rowell and Mr. William A. Kamer were married yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. G. W. McClanahan, pastor of St. Matthew's Lutheran church. Mr. and Mrs. Kamer left on the 6:45 train for Washington, Philadelphia and New York. They will be at home at No. 108 North Eighth street after October 22nd.

Friends in the city and elsewhere have received handsomely engraved invitations reading as follows: Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brand request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Madge Ella to Mr. Thomas Cheson Taliaferro on Thursday, October the twenty-ninth, at five-thirty o'clock, First Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, North Carolina.

Friends in Wilmington have received invitations reading as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Laurence D. Wicker request the pleasure of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Gene to Mr. Norman Cary Toole on Wednesday evening, the twenty-first of October, at nine o'clock, Six hundred eighteen oak Avenue, Sanford, Florida.

Mr. Toole, who formerly lived in Wilmington, has many friends here.

WILMINGTON LADY IS

AUTHOR OF NEW SONG
"Always Looking for You" is the title of a new song which has been written by Mrs. Daisy Reid Dock, wife of Mr. F. W. Dock, of this city, and has just been published by the John T. Hall Music Publishing Company, of New York. The music for the song was composed by William Stark. Mrs. Dock has been warmly congratulated by friends who have read the song.

It will soon be on sale at all music stores throughout the country. Within a short time it will also be played by the orchestra of the Academy, so that friends here may have an opportunity of hearing the music which is well suited to the beauty of the words of the song.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

FOR NOVEMBER BAZAAR

The ladies of the German American Aid Society held a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Germania Club to discuss plans for the bazaar which will be held under the auspices of this organization November 5th and 6th. There was a large attendance at the meeting. Committees for the various features of the bazaar will be on an elaborate scale. Mrs. C. P. B. Mahler, chairman of the society, announced that she already had appointed several committees. The proceeds will be sent to Germany to aid in alleviating suffering in that country on account of the European war.

The following chairmen were appointed for the different committees: Reception—Mrs. Adrian. Booth—Mr. J. H. Nigzel, Jr. Decoration—Mr. W. A. McGirt, Jr. Chance Booth—Mrs. William Schuler. Cream and Cake Booth—Mrs. A. D. Wessell, Sr. Fancy Booth—Mrs. John Kuck. Housekeepers' Booth—Mrs. M. G. Tlencken. Post Card Booth—Mrs. C. H. Bornemann. Candy and Cigar Booth—Mrs. H. L. Voller. MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

GIVEN METHODIST PASTOR

WATSON, N. C., Oct. 9.—One of the most brilliant social events of the season was the miscellaneous shower given by the ladies of the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Hill's Hall was elaborately decorated in autumn branches and red and white paper. The hall resembled a forest with its innumerable vines twined around pillars and creeping over the windows, while trees planted about lent a greater touch of nature to the scene. In a beautiful bower of evergreens under the spreading branches of a large tree Misses Brookline Hines, Louise Anderson, Margaret Barden, and Lou Mitchell Paison served delightful punch. Ferns planted about furnished cozy corners for tete-a-tetes. While the crowning feature was a table beautifully decorated in nature to the scene was a bride and groom and suspended just above were the letters S. and L. in yellow and green.

Two hundred visitors called during the afternoon and left gifts of china, silver, linen, etc., for the bride and groom-to-be. Mesdames A. B. Anderson, W. L. Hill, and C. E. Carroll greeted the visitors at the door. Misses Sallie Hill, Ella Brown and Mrs. S. R. Flowers showed the guests around the hall. Mesdames J. Tucker and J. C. Russ, and Miss Annie Carroll assisted by Misses Margaret Pierce Best, Katharine Powell, Helen Fonville, Susie Faison and Jennie Strickland served a salad course. Among the out-of-town visitors were Mrs. Frazier and Miss Southerland, of Kenansville. The latter being the bride-elect, who won many friends by her charming manner.

FIRST FALL MEETING OF

WILMINGTON RED CROSS

The Wilmington chapter of the American Red Cross Society held its first meeting since the close of the summer season in the parlors of the Colonial Inn yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, president of the society, presided, and Mrs. S. Mendelsohn, secretary, kept a record of the proceedings. The reports of the treasurer and the different committees showed that the organization is in a flourishing condition.

The report of the grounds committee of which Mrs. W. B. Cooper is chairman was of particular interest. Plans were submitted for beautifying the grounds of the Red Cross Sanatorium north of the city and were heartily approved by the society. The remaining members of this committee are: Mrs. Hugh MacRae, Mrs. L. Blumenthal, Mrs. Joseph Jacoby, Mrs. W. H. Sprunt and Miss Sue McQueen.

The physician in charge of the patients at the sanitarium reported that there are now 11 persons in the institution as follows: white, male, 2; female, 3; colored, male, 4; female, 2. The report of the nurse received much praise from all present.

Mrs. S. Solomon, chairman of the visiting committee, reported that a large number of visits had been made, and Mrs. J. M. Solky, corresponding secretary, stated that since the beginning of the European war her work had greatly increased on account of the many contributions that have been made.

Mrs. Martin, the president, announced that the German American Aid Society was to have a bazaar at the Germania Club November 5th and 6th for the purpose of securing funds to send to Germany to alleviate suffering in that country on account of the war. She urged that the members of the Red Cross would encourage the holding of the bazaar in every way possible.

The Red Cross Society is now making an earnest effort to increase its membership with the two purposes in view, the first being to assemble a large working force to carry on the noble work of the organization, and the second being to raise funds with which to relieve suffering caused by the European war. The yearly dues are $1, one-half of which is sent to Europe to aid in the Red Cross work.

BLUES WIN FROM THE REDS

Y. M. C. A. Membership Campaign Closed Last Night—Teams Will Continue To Work.

The Y. M. C. A. membership campaign closed last night after eight days of effective work by the teams composing the two divisions known as the Reds and the Blues. The latter won with 1,784 points; the former only having 1,450 points. At the beginning of the contest the Reds had the lead but through more effective team work, the Blues were able to overcome this and pushed steadily ahead for the last several days.

Under the leadership of "Commodore" D. H. Howes for the Reds and "Commodore" Paul Gray for the Blues the members of the Boys' division did most efficient work. The Red were victorious in this division having made 574 points while the Blues made 544 points.

It was agreed several days ago in the Boys' division that the losing team should cook and prepare a supper at the Y. M. C. A. for the winners. This will be carried out the latter part of the month and the Reds are looking forward with much pleasure to the supper that they will eat at the expense of their rivals.

Mr. D. C. North was the leader of the Reds in the Senior Division and Mr. J. L. Sprunt headed the victorious Blues. Mr. W. A. McGirt, chairman of the membership committee, had general supervision of the campaign and rendered most efficient service under conditions that were somewhat trying.

The association is indebted to Messrs. Sprunt and North for the fine work that they did. It has been decided by the membership committee and the board of directors to continue work for new members for the remainder of the month and it is believed that quiet persistent work by the officers of the association and their friends will prove very effective.

A large number of the team leaders and their friends including a number of bright eyed boys gathered at the association building last night to get the "returns." Grape fruit punch and cake were served under the supervision of Assistant Secretary Yandell. This feature was much enjoyed and the only regret was that there were no more present.

The directors of the association and General Secretary Huntington appreciate the splendid spirit which has been manifested by all the workers in the campaign. Because of the dogged determination and the expressed intention to continue persistent efforts in keeping the work of the association before the public they feel that much has been gained.

The unprecedented conditions which have confronted the workers have and they have been greatly benefited. Following is the standing of the different teams in the Senior Division at the close of the contest:

—Martha Monely, colored, an old colored woman, who is said to be insane, was locked up by the police department last night.

—Mr. Charles M. Watson, one of Fayetteville's most enterprising and successful business men, came in on the tri-weekly A. & Y. train yesterday to purchase additional stocks for his two stores in the Upper Cape Fear capital.

—Maj. Wm. H. Bernard, who has been spending the summer and a part of the fall in Fayetteville with ex-Sheriff Frank H. Stedman, returned to the city yesterday and was cordially greeted by his friends. "Sheriff" Stedman accompanied him on the return and spent the day in the city. Friends of the "Sheriff" will be glad to know of the prosperous condition of the Cumberland Savings & Trust Co., of which he is the president and directing genius.

THEATRICAL

Considerable interest attaches to the first engagement here of "Fine Feathers," which H. H. Frazee will present here tomorrow night at the Academy of Music for one night only in that of this latest of Eugene Walter's dramatic successes filled its entire first season with capacity engagements in the Cort Theatre, Chicago, where it was produced August 12, 1912, and ended in New York on August 9th of 1913.

Described as a modern drama of today in four acts by the author of "Paid in Full," "The Easiest Way," "The Wolf," "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," etc., "Fine Feathers" comes heralded as the one big American play of today in which the human emotions pulsate throughout.

The first act opens in a fine spirit of original comedy, which permeates the happy home of Bob Reynolds and his wife who struggle cheerfully to keep up an installment plan establishment in Staten Island on $25 a week. Action and "atmosphere" deepen into drama when John Brand, a tempter, arrives, and the way in which the storm clouds of impending evil gather is contrived with a master hand. It is said that no play in recent years had been written in which action and atmosphere are made to accumulate into such an avalanche of evil which the chief characters in "Fine Feathers" are powerless to escape.

The portraiture of the young chemist, corrupted, whose submission to his wife's passion for the things money can buy, turns him first grifter, then blackmailer, is said to be a character study such as only Eugene Walter, among all of our native dramatists, has been able to write. The high-principled but weak-willed young husband is a character which, despite its criminal weaknesses, never loses sympathy and is followed with breathless interest in its staggering steps down the hill which leads to moral oblivion. It strikes a note of inevitability of a supreme struggle against destiny. Seats now selling at Woodall & Sheppard's.

Even more auspiciously than either of its former seasons, did Bud Fisher's happy thought character conception "Mutt and Jeff" open its fourth season as a musical comedy offering under Gus Hill's direction. With an entire new production from scenery to music, "Mutt and Jeff" have set out to conquer new worlds. "In Mexico" is the title of the new vehicle selected to lead our heroes to fame and fortune in the land of tropical beauty.

From its premier presentation, they have played to absolute capacity business, during the three seasons it has been before the public. The success of "Mutt and Jeff" is not alone unprecedented, but almost unbelievable. It is not a whit of an exaggeration to proclaim Gus Hill's cartoon play the most remarkable play in theatrical history. The play has yielded its owner an actual profit of five million dollars in three seasons of 30 weeks each. Dividing this equally among the five separate and distinct companies which have toured the United States and Canada, their profits have averaged more than $1,600 per week each. The artistic success of "Mutt and Jeff" as an offering and the extent in which it has pleased its patrons must be gauged according to these figures; as such extraordinary financial returns could not have been possible without correspondingly extraordinary merit by all means.

As no musical comedy since the inception of entertainment of that character has ever before equalled this record, we dare proclaim "Mutt and Jeff" the greatest.

It's coming to the Academy of Music for a stay of one performance October 12th. If you've seen "Mutt and Jeff" before, a night by all means, there's a new laugh to every minute from start to finish. Seats now selling at Woodall & Sheppard's.

Local theatre-going will again have the opportunity of seeing Oliver Morosco's production of J. Hartley Manners' comedy of youth, "Peg O' My Heart," which comes to the Academy of Music on Monday night.

The presentation of this play here last season brought forth exceptional praise by the critics of the local press, who were unanimous in their verdict. "Peg" the real treat of many seasons. It is indeed satisfying to know that Manager Morosco has kept his last season's cast together, and the company is to be seen here headed by Miss Blanche Hall in the part of "Peg," who left nothing to be desired by her women.

derful interpretation of the title role. The play is filled, with crisp wit, Miss Hall is supported by the same cast that played here last season, which includes F. L. Bruce-Tilden, A. T. Hendon, J. Irving White, Pelham Linton, Violet Moore, Ruth Garland, Alma Chester and Joseph Allerton.

Another great show at the Victoria Theatre. It opened yesterday, being popular the regular mid-week change, and it is a corker in every way. It is not only an all-star affair, but it is another show of giant dimensions.

The headline is the wonderful act of the Four MacNallys, the act that sets the great cities talking and commanded big European time. It is not only a startling, beautiful act, but a stupendous one, and is an entire show in itself. The MacNallys are acrobats, jugglers, wire-walkers and, in fact, a little of everything that is daring and skillful, and they present their act with pretty stage settings. It was a hurrah, a thrill and laughter the entire time it was running yesterday. It is an act great for children, as well as adults. Close upon the heels of this act comes an exceedingly laughable sketch, interspersed with songs and dances, by that clever German comedian, Joseph Howard, and equally as clever Gusie Lindsey, a well known comedienne. Miss Belle Carmen is also one of the stars and she can literally make a banjo talk. Her renditions on the banjo, both classical and popular, were superb, and her ragtime playing received thunderous applause. Her act is not only most entertaining but also most novel. Then there is that "big fellow in cork," Harry Murphy, who gets the audience started laughing at the very offset and keeps it humming along. The pictures are of exceptional cleverness, too.

"The Virginian" Again Today.
"Have you seen 'The Virginian,' at the Grand Theatre?" That was the popular question among amusement-lovers yesterday, and if the party questioned responded in the negative he or she was admonished by the interrogator to be certain to witness it—and judging by the crowded theatre, afternoon and night, the advice was followed. The same advice can now be handed you, if you were not at the Grand yesterday. For today the Grand offers another day of this magnificent film masterpiece, with Dustin Farnum in the title role. Yes, luckily for all amusement lovers, the Grand will today present once more "The Virginian," which is one of the Paramount's greatest dramatic films and which is being presented by the Grand in most up-to-date way and at the smallest prices of admission ever charged to witness it. Wilmington folks, too, are fully alive to the fact that the Grand is offering the best and celebrated Paramount Pictures in doing the biggest thing ever done in Wilmington in moving picture enterprise and that it is the equal of the greatest effort put forth by the largest moving picture theatres of the larger cities. Today's menu is topped by a special Kay-Bee dramatic release, a full two-reel picture, "The Gangsters and the Girl." This is one of the most exciting and interesting dramatic offerings produced by the Kay-Bee company in some time, and included in the cast are such screen stars as beautiful Elizabeth Hubbard and Margaret Thompson, while the masculine leading roles are taken by Charles Ray and Arthur Jarrett, two of the Mutual's biggest stars. Elizabeth Burbridge as Molly Ashley, "the girl" is extremely satisfying.

Then there's an extraordinary feature in a Sterling two-reel comedy—something that comes but seldom. It is "A Shooting Match" and features the inimitable Ford Sterling in the leading role.

SOUTHERN SPOTS LOWER WHEAT MARKET IS HIGHER EASIER MONEY INDICATED

Report That Texas Shippers Are Offering Cotton at 6 1-2 F. O. B. Interior Points.

New York, Oct. 8.—A further decline was reported in Southern spot cotton markets today, and local dealers said that Texas shippers were offering middling here at 6 1-2 cents f.o.b. interior points. A better demand from domestic mills and exporters was reported at the decline, but fresh business was said to be still far from normal and in some instances Southern shippers were believed to be asking for bids.

The weather map showed generally seasonable conditions over the belt, and the decline of the past three or four days was attributed to accumulating supplies with the advance of picking. The conference committee announced that liquidation of straddle accounts through fall would be resumed within a few days at 8 1-2 cents for December contracts, but interest in this was overshadowed by increasing confidence in the syndicate plan of adjusting the old contract interest.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.
New Orleans, Oct. 8.—Further price recessions were noted in the cotton market today as the result of pressure of the new crop to find an outlet. Important declines were reported in the interior and local spots were marked down one-eighth of a cent a pound. The January option was traded in at 7 1/8, which was the price of middling cotton in the spot department. January has lost something over half a cent, or $2.50 a bale, in the last ten days. Receipts of cotton were not heavy anywhere, but the export movement fell off somewhat and sentiment was more bearish.

Spot cotton quiet; sales on the spot 185; to arrive 100.

WILL TAKE OFF TRAINS EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 17

Coast Line Officials Have Appointment Today

No Indication Given of Purpose of Conference—Refinishing and Refurbishing of State Capitol Office—Raleigh News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 8.—It is stated at the Corporation Commission offices that it is understood that the changes in the schedules of the Southern Railway made necessary by the Southern being allowed to take off the number of trains announced yesterday by the Commission, will be made on Saturday, October 17th.

The opinion is expressed that the taking off of the trains, through the proper adjustment of the remaining trains will work out if any inconvenience to the traveling public. In the case of second section 37-38, between Charlotte and Danville, allowed to be discontinued, they have been running just half hour behind the first section and were put on because of inability to handle the heavy travel on first sections and by adjusting the first sections so that all stations will be served by the remaining trains there will be no detriment to the service if the trains can handle the traffic as it is insisted they can under present conditions.

Inquiry at the office of the Commission elicited the statement that the commission has no notification of purpose on the part of other systems in the State to request permission to discontinue any parts of their train service. It was stated that there is an appointment for certain officials of the Atlantic Coast Line to appear before the Commission on Friday of this week but that the commission is not advised that curtailment of train service will be brought up. All the commission knows about it is that a conference has been asked and granted without indicating the business to be considered, but it is certain some changes in schedules, etc., will be asked.

A regulation from the Governor of North Carolina on the Governor of North Carolina was honored today by Governor Craig for the return of Morgan Hill to Cherokee county, S. C., to answer the charge of assault with intent to kill and disturbing public worship. The papers did not show where in this State the fugitive was being held. The work of refinishing and furnishing the offices of the State auditor in the Capitol building is being completed and a similar work is now being in the executive offices of Governor Craig, which are to be handsomely refurnished and entirely new furnishings installed in keeping with the dignity and importance of the offices and the progress and culture of the State. This is the declared purpose of the Council of State in re-equipping the executive offices.

UNION COUNTY FARMER DEAD IN MUD PUDDLE

Body Found in Woods Near Charlotte Yesterday.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 8.—R. M. Haywood, a well to do farmer of Union county, was found dead face downward in a mud puddle, with two broad scars on his head evidently made with a blunt instrument. The body was found on a tract of woods a mile east of Charlotte. The body has evidently been there for several days, as decomposition was at an advanced stage.

The body was discovered by a farmer living in the vicinity, who notified Coroner Hovis. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that the deceased came to his death by the use of a blunt instrument.

A purse with only eighty cents in it was found on the body, together with papers that proved his identity. A relative of the dead man stated before the coroner that Haywood was in the city last Saturday and had $150 which he was to have given to the witness' mother-in-law as part settlement of an estate of which Haywood was one of the executors. The dead man has a brother living in Charlotte and the witness before the coroner supposed he was in the city at his brother's, or had gone back home. Haywood had not been reported missing by either his relatives here or in Union county.

Oscar Langford, who shot his brother-in-law, Will Brislake, last Saturday night here in Brislake's home, after he had come and apologized to Brislake for unseemly conduct in Brislake's house the night before, was released this afternoon on a bond of $3000. Brislake's wounds proved not to be serious, and he is recovering rapidly.

IS PENANCE PRACTICED BY ALABAMA PLANTERS?

Interesting and Important Case Before U. S. Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Stubborn resistance will be made next week in the Supreme Court to the attempts of the Federal government to show that peonage is practiced by Alabama planters with the aid of the state courts. The case at issue is that of J. A. Reynolds and G. W. Broughton of Monroe county, Alabama, who were indicted, charged with having kept Ed. Rivers, a negro, in involuntary servitude, in defiance of the Federal constitution. Rivers was convicted of petit larceny, fined $15 and costs, amounting to $43.75. The law of Alabama authorizes a person willing to become pawner for a contract to pay the fines, the convict to make good the amount in labor. Reynolds appeared as sponsor for Rivers who signed a contract to work nine months and twenty-four days. He quit work before the end of the contract and was arrested for breach of contract and fined one cent and costs, amounting to $37.05. He then agreed to work four months and fifteen days for G. W. Broughton, as sponsor for him.

The case was taken into the Alabama Federal courts, where the planters had been guilty of no offense and the government appealed to the Supreme Court. Attorneys for the planters in anticipation of the oral argument have filed the statute of Alabama as a humane one.

Washington, Oct. 8.—President Wilson today received delegates to the convention of the National Association of Postmasters of the second and third classes which ended its deliberations with the selection of Atlantic City, N. J., as the next meeting place.

LORIMER INDICTED BY FEDERAL GRAND JURY

Charged With Misapplication
of Funds of His Bank

Indictment Also Names His Associate
in Contracting Firm as Co-Defendant, Charged With Aiding and Abetting.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—William Lorimer, voted out of the United States Senate after an investigation, on the ground that he had not been legally elected, was indicted in Federal Court today on a charge of misapplication of the funds of the LaSalle Street National Bank, the forerunner of the defunct LaSalle Street Trust & Savings Bank. Lorimer was president of both institutions.

The indictment also named Jos. P. Gallagher, with whom he had been associated in the contracting firm of Lorimer & Gallagher, as a co-defendant, charged with aiding and abetting the alleged misapplication of the funds. The grand jury also returned indictments against other officials of the bank, Charles B. Munds, vice president; Charles G. Cox, cashier; and Thomas McDonald, assistant cashier. Indictments charging the making of false entries were returned against these three August 27. Today's true bills charge additional violations of this kind.

The indictment against Lorimer and Gallagher is in 36 counts and charges that the Lorimer and Gallagher company gave worthless notes for a total of $56,508. Lorimer is charged with misapplication in buying for the bank these notes which, he, it is said, knew to be worthless.

REV. THOS. C. DARTS IS ELECTED BISHOP

Before the election, it was after a notification came and it was after a conference with the news. It came as such a surprise, he said, that he could not think of reaching a decision right away. He declared that he would give the matter his most earnest and serious consideration and would probably be ready to announce his decision within a week or ten days. That he felt highly honored goes without saying.

Some of Mr. Darts' friends here are inclined to think that he will decline the office, believing it his duty to remain in the diocese. It was barely six months ago that he was elevated to the rectorship of his present charge which is one of the largest and most influential in the city. The congregation, within the past year, occupied a handsome new edifice in the west end section.

Mr. Darts is a widower, 40 years old, with several children. He is a native of Pulaski, Va., was educated at Roanoke College and graduated from the Theological Seminary in 1902. He first held a mission charge in West Virginia. Mr. Darts has the reputation of being an exceptionally forceful and pleasing preacher and is endowed with executive ability to a marked degree. He is also noted for his tact.

INTERESTING SIGHTS.

Dr. Milton Ross Second to the 18th Ballot, Then Withdraws.

Newbern, N. C., Oct. 8.—The special Council in Washington last night adjourned at the end of the 15th ballot, with the honors about evenly divided between Dr. W. H. Milton, of Wilmington, and Dr. John R. Harding, of New York. Immediately after the opening of the Council this morning, Dr. Milton asked that his name be withdrawn to avoid what promised to be a deadlock. Dr. Milton stated in clear and impressive words that he was ready always to serve wherever God pleased to use him, and that he was willing to serve this Diocese as best he could as its Bishop if the call came with something like the unanimity of a summons to duty, but that in view of the division of sentiment evident in the ballots, he felt that he must withdraw.

The Council was much impressed by the candor and the evident sincerity of his statement. His friends, however, urged him to wait until a few more ballots indicated the attitude of the Council. This morning after one ballot, which was little different from the last, the name of Dr. Milton was withdrawn, leaving Dr. Harding almost a clear field.

Several speeches were then made urging the Rev. T. C. Darts, of St. James' Church, Richmond, Va., Rev. John R. Matthews, of Greenville, spoke effectively on the situation and suggested several names to the Council.

The voting, however, was confined to Dr. Harding and Rev. Mr. Darts with a few scattered votes. After the 18th ballot the name of Dr. Harding was withdrawn. On the 20th ballot Rev. T. C. Darts was elected. The Rev. Nathaniel Harding moved that his election be made unanimous, which was done by a joyful vote. The Council with joyful voice then sang the Doxology. The president of the Council read the required certificate of election and called upon the members of the Council to sign same.

Rev. C. A. Ashby, Rev. R. F. Huske, and Mr. J. G. Bragaw, Jr., were appointed a special committee to notify Mr. Darts of his election. Mr. J. G. Bragaw, Sr., in behalf of the vestry of St. Peter's church, Washington, extended to Mr. Darts an invitation to come to that church for his consecration. After the singing of the "Gloria in Excelsis," the Council adjourned sine die.

The spirit and temper of the Council were exemplary from beginning to end. Not one harsh word was uttered nor was there the slightest indication of ill feeling. All minds were open to reason, and full consideration was given to what every speaker had to say. No more harmonious meeting could have been desired and all left it with graceful acceptance of the result. We hope and believe that its choice was a wise one, and all stand ready to give loyal allegiance to the newly elected Bishop.

LARGE CROWDS GREET BRYAN.

In His Campaign Tour of Northwestern Ohio—Prohibition.

Kenton, O., Oct. 8.—Large crowds greeted Wm. J. Bryan today in his tour of Northwestern Ohio in behalf of the Ohio Democratic party. At Byrns, where Mr. Bryan delivered one of a number of addresses, the re-election of Governor Cox, the election of Timothy S. Hogan, Democratic nominee for senator, and the re-election of Ohio Democratic members of Congress were especially urged.

Mr. Bryan does not refer to state-wide prohibition, which is to be voted upon in Ohio in November.

CRAIG STRONG FOR ALL THE TEN AMENDMENTS.

Begins Campaign Speaking in Statesville—Other Speeches.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 8.—Governor Craig left tonight for Statesville where he makes a campaign speech tonight. He will be in Mocksville Saturday for a speech. He proposes to come out strongly for all ten amendments.

The Governor speaks in Winston-Salem October 18th, and will open the Raleigh Fair October 20th.

NOTICE OF REGISTRATION AND GENERAL ELECTION.

Notice is hereby given of the General Election in the County of New Hanover on Tuesday after the first Monday of November, it being the 3rd day of November, 1914.

Said election will be held during the hours and in the manner prescribed by law, and at the places hereinafter named.

Registration books will be opened on the wall; the room cold; a general sense of untidiness, uncleanliness and general disorder, he would register a kick and howl that would be heard all over the house. And yet — this same man spends his hours of business in an office where intelligent and regular janitor service is unknown, in fact where there are no facilities for such service. He sits through the dirt and dust. His clients and friends call; they do not see; they have become accustomed and hardened to the old order of things. And there lies the point. Few NEW faces do come. There is no attraction. Look this square in the face. Is this the case in your business? Think it over. There is a building in Wilmington which remedies all of these and many other troubles for $12.00 a month and up. Brighten up, stir around a bit. Get yourself in the Murchison National Bank Building, and be proud of your office quarters. Visit the tenants already in this handsome building; talk to them. They have a message for you.

The polling places and names of the registrars and Judges of Election fixed for the aforesaid election are as follows:

First Ward, First Precinct—Polling place: Fourth Street Bridge. Registrar, W. McD. Evans; Judges, B. C. Moore and James Elkins.

PLAIN TALK No. 3

If a business man went to his home after his day's work in his office and found the chairs in his library dusty; pictures hanging crooked on the wall; the room cold; a general sense of untidiness, uncleanliness and general disorder, he would register a kick and howl that would be heard all over the house. And yet — this same man spends his hours of business in an office where intelligent and regular janitor service is unknown, in fact where there are no facilities for such service. He sits through the dirt and dust. His clients and friends call; they do not see; they have become accustomed and hardened to the old order of things. And there lies the point. Few NEW faces do come. There is no attraction. Look this square in the face. Is this the case in your business? Think it over.
